

Attracting Clients

Jan Luther, EFT Master

A client I met at a Breakfast Networking Meeting was talking about his marriage and how he and his wife just couldn't seem to get along. He had a lot of judgment around her choices and her dreams and goals and about her not wanting to do what he wanted to do. This happened to be something I knew about! I'd worked through these issues in the early years of my own marriage. I had learned to love and reduce judging. So often, our clients are drawn to us because they resonate to something in us. We have something they want to be like. I was an example of what he wanted to become.

There are thousands of people out there that are waiting for EFT. Are you getting the word out that you have something unique and wonderful to contribute with this tool?

Have you taken the time to do your personal healing so that you can work with a variety of clients and offer them unique insights and ideas?

To be what your clients want to become requires your willingness to do your personal healing just as importantly as advancing your EFT skills and getting Marketing Training.

When you are an example of what your potential clients wants to become you become a client magnet. How can you BE an example of what your potential client wants to become?

You work toward the goals of being:

- Mostly free of emotional baggage
- Happy about where you are and where you are going
- Content to share these techniques and just as content if someone chooses not to join you (do you take it personally?)
- And toward creating a life built around a service that is truly helpful to your community and our world in general.

Do you want to learn MORE about becoming a client magnet?

Mark Your Calendar and plan to join us for a FREE Live Call on July 15. We will be tapping on the fears and blocks that get in the way of you being a client magnet. You can sign up here:
